Wellman plans $50M expansion

ECHO STAFF REPORT

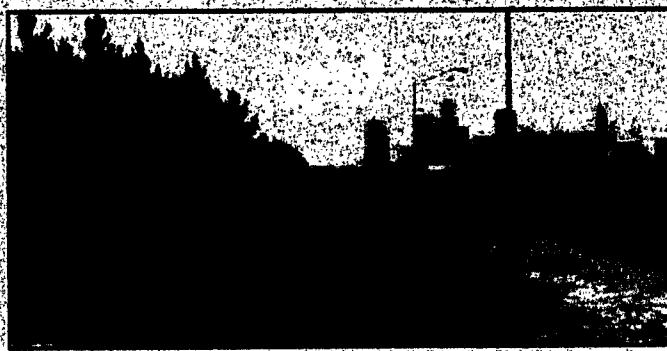

Wellman, Inc. has announced the board of directors' decision to proceed with the company's plan to add 300 million pounds of additional solid statting capacity to its Pearl River facility located at Port Bienville Industrial Park. The $50 million expansion will begin in early 2006.

With an increase in demand and a decline of imports this year, the industry is expecting strong market growth for PET resins over the next several years, making the timing of the expansion appropriate, according to a statement issued by the company on Tuesday.

The expansion will bring Wellman's total U.S. PET resin capacity to approximately 1.6 billion pounds, enhancing the company's position as one of the largest PET resin producers

Council considers 'tight budget' for next-fiscal year

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Staff Writer

Bay St. Louis leaders are proposing a no-tax-hike budget for fiscal 2005, while giving employee raises and providing for some major capital spending items.

City Council has set a Sept. 7 public hearing on the spending plan as proposed by Mayor Eddie Favre in a Monday meeting.

Favre termed the package "a tight budget that doesn't give us anything we don't need." All city employees, except the mayor and council, would get raises under the new budget, averaging $1,000, Favre said.

Still, council members were eyeing ways to spend less than the $11,466,516 called for in the proposal. That's $1.2 million more than this year's budget, and the hike is financed primarily by $1 million in "carry-over" cash from this year.

Favre said that the city was able to hold

Wave Fest is Sept. 5

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

It's that time of year again, time to start preparing for the Fourth Annual Wave Fest. This year, Wave Fest will be held on Sunday, September 5, from 10 a.m. till 8 p.m. on Coleman Avenue in Waveland. Booths are still available.

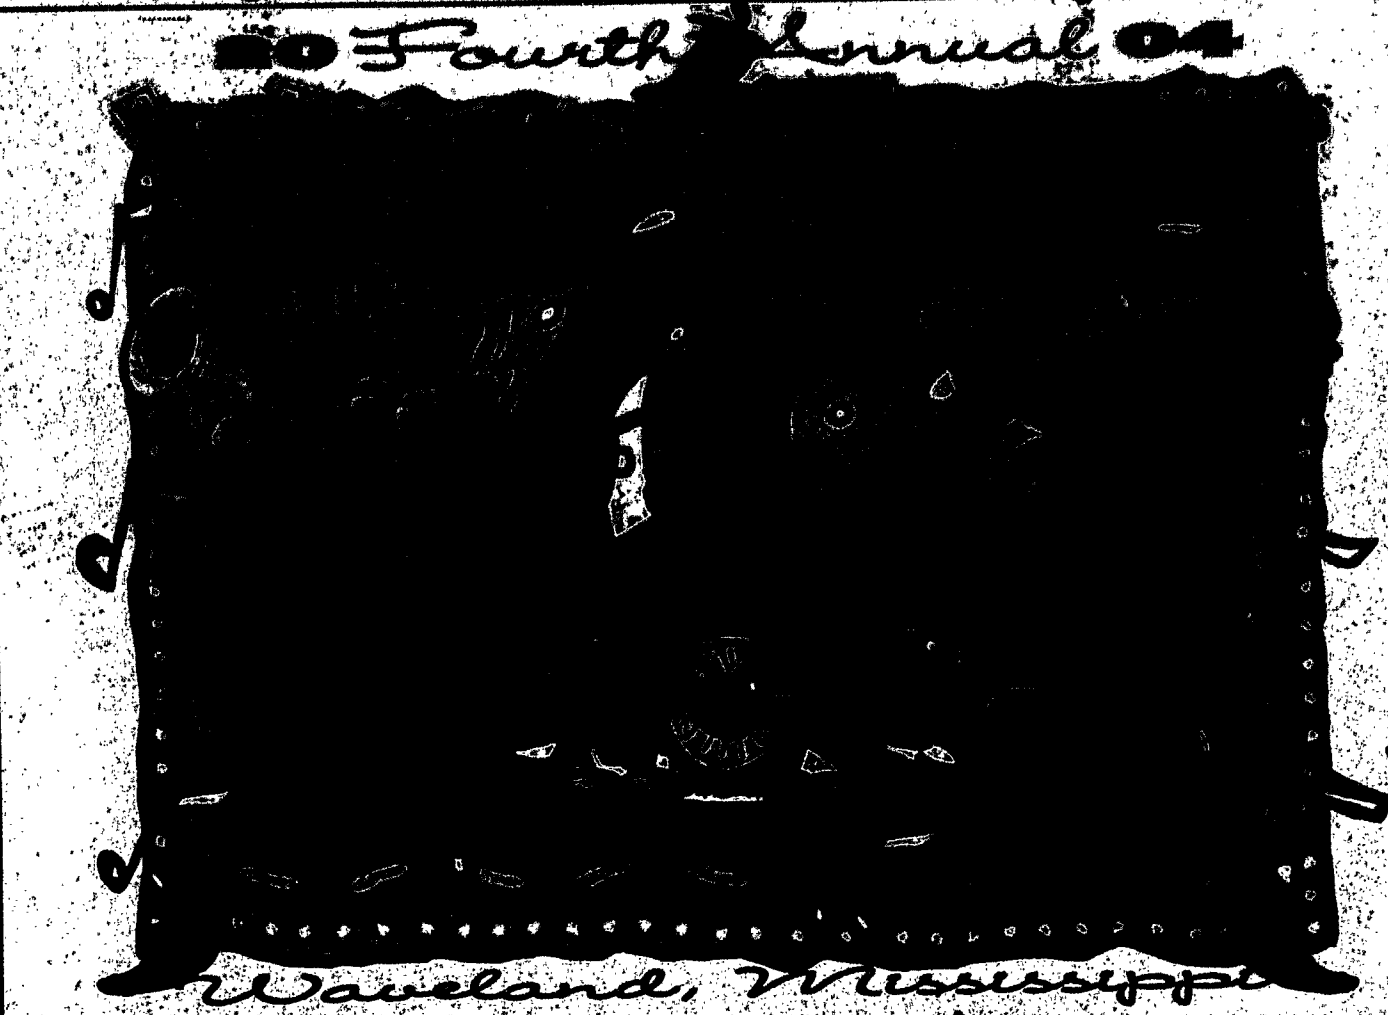

Coleman Ave. will close to all traffic at 9:30 a.m. and remained closed until 8 p.m.

A one mile fun run and a 5K run will begin at 8 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. respectively, with registration for the runs beginning at 7 a.m. at the Garfield-Ladner Pier. Runners should not park on Coleman Ave. because of the street closing.

Early registration for the Antique car show will be held from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. at Coleman and Central Ave. Awards will be presented at 3:45 with a grand procession to the beach at 4 p.m.

Promoters hope this will be the biggest and the best year yet. To make that happen, they need your help. Help can be in the form of a sponsorship for the folding map that will serve as both a guide and a map to the festivities, monetary support, volunteering, or by participating. Help from individuals or groups is welcomed.

The event began as a venue for community participation, as an end of summer celebration for both residents and visitors, and of course to promote an atmosphere to encourage economic growth on Coleman Ave. Each year the Fest has continued to grow.

This year Wave Fest will be held on Sunday, September 5, from 10 a.m. till 8 p.m. on Coleman Avenue in Waveland. Booths are still available. Coleman Ave. will close to all traffic at 9:30 a.m. and remained closed until 8 p.m.

Besides the 5K run and Antique Auto Show, this year's Fest will feature live bands all day, arts and crafts, food and beverage booths, information booths, children's games and rides, a sand sculpting contest at the beach, community entertainment and a raffle. Downtown businesses will feature sidewalk sales or other promotions.

A fireworks display sponsored by the City of Waveland will finish the day. Bands will include The Blackened Blues Band, The Porch Rockers, Kan Dee Side, and Road 326. On the Coleman Ave. stage will be performing Glenn and Kitty, dancers singers and theater groups.

Individuals, artists, crafts people, civic, church, school, business and community organizations, restaurants, and others are invited to reserve booths. Participation by the entire community is encouraged.

For more information on Wave Fest, to reserve a booth or a sponsorship, or to volunteer please call Carol Kerr at 228-467-1405, or Kathy Pinn at 228-467-3922. The event is sponsored by the Coleman Ave. Coalition and the City of Waveland. For more information on the 5K run call 228-469-0792. For more information on the auto show call 228-467-3922 or 467-1815.

RESTAURANT REVIEW

Presenting some of the Finest Restaurants on the Mississippi Gulf Coast

Mike's
seafood & pizza

Mike's Seafood & Pizza

Mike's Seafood & Pizza at the corner of Hwy 90 and Kiln Waveland Cutoff Road is proud to offer their valued patrons some of the finest food on the Gulf Coast. All dishes are prepared with the highest quality, freshest ingredients available. The appetizers range from freshly shucked oysters on the 1/2 shell to a generous portion of delectable coconut shrimp.

The combination seafood platter is one of the best on the coast. It includes 8 butterfly shrimp, 8 oysters, a delicious stuffed crab and 2 catfish filets, all for an unbelievable $10.95.

If your appetite is not quiet that hearty you should try the very popular house special basket. You will be served 8 shrimp, 3 oysters and 2 catfish strips along with french fries and bread for only $4.95!

The salads are fresh and crisp and include a delicious caesar salad. You can add chicken, shrimp or oysters to your salad for only $2.00 more.

The po-boys are always a popular choice at Mike's. The shrimp, oysters and catfish are fried to a delicate golden brown and are piled generously atop fresh french bread.

A pizza is only as good as it's crust and Mike's pizza dough is made fresh daily and topped with their homemade marinara sauce and 100% mozzarella cheese. You may order your pizza your way or try one of Mike's specialty pizzas. Watching your carbs? Try Mike's wheat pizza, only $9.95 plus $1.00 per topping.

The calzones are stuffed with their homemade Sicilian white sauce and can be customized with your favorite stuffings.

New at Mike's is the meatball and spaghetti with bread for only $6.95 or the delicious homemade lasagna made with Mike's famous Marinara sauce a steal at only $7.95.

Pass readies rail closing plan

BY JOHN WATERMAN
Staff Writer

After two meetings with officials from CSX and the Mississippi Department of Transportation, the Pass Christian planning commission agreed on a plan to present to the city council regarding the proposed closing of several crossings in the area.

CSX and MDOT had originally planned to close 25 percent of all railroad crossings across the State of Mississippi. In Pass Christian, CSX planned to close crossings that they determined were redundant. They initially picked four streets: Seal, Market, Clarence and Heirn.

Much of the debate surrounding this issue came from the proposed closing of Seal. Many residents said that if Seal was closed, they would have severely limited access to emergency vehicles and school buses, as well as one less means of escape during hurricanes or flooding.

However, the planning commission has completely removed Seal from their list of streets to be considered. In its place, they recommended closing St. Paul or Courtney.

Gabrielle Malley, who lives on Seal, said she was happy that her street was off the list for now.

"I just hope the board of aldermen takes (the planning commission's) recommendations," she said.

Dayton Robinson, chair of the planning commission, said the board of Aldermen had the final say in which streets would be approved. The planning commission, he said, could only provide recommendations.

"While we're not recommending that Seal be closed, lightning could strike anywhere," Robinson said.

All of the streets were chosen based upon the provision that CSX and MDOT would construct access roads, going both east and west, to the nearest crossing. This would minimize the time that emergency vehicles need to get to their destinations.

"We want people to be able to go either way to the next cross street," Robinson said.

Pass Alderman Howard McKissick, present in the audience, asked Jeff Luthi, CSX property management specialist, if CSX would now be able to submit a plan to the city council. Luthi said that after discussion with the planning commission, they were.

"We want a good understanding about what each party is supposed to do," Luthi said.

The entire project has an estimated completion time of three to five years, and will cost several million dollars. However, CSX and MDOT will pay for the entire project. MDOT will provide 70 percent of the funds, while CSX will provide 30 percent.

The CSX-MDOT issue will be discussed further at the next Board of Aldermen meeting on Sept. 7.

DMR seeks oyster industry input at public meeting

THE SEA COAST ECHO

The Mississippi Department of Marine Resources (DMR) Shellfish Bureau will hold a public meeting Monday, August 30, 2004 at 6 p.m. at the Hancock County Civic Center, 3088 Longfellow Drive in Bay St. Louis. The meeting is designed to seek input from commercial fishermen and seafood processors in the Mississippi oyster industry.

This informal meeting will give participants an opportunity to provide input regarding the upcoming oyster season and the Mississippi Shellfish Program.

For more information, contact Rita Duvernay at the DMR at (228) 374-5022, ext. 5068.

Cuevas' Quotes

by Ellis C. Cuevas
Publisher Emeritus

Are you ready for some football?

It is already high school football time for area football teams. The Bay High Tigers open tonight, August 26, when they visit Mercy Cross at Yankee Stadium in Biloxi.

As many of you know, Mercy Cross' new coach is Rocky Gaudin, who was a Bay High coach several years ago and at Hancock last year.

The Tigers need to be ready for a tough game, as any teams coached by Gaudin will for sure give it their all.

The Hancock Hawks, who have returning coach Walt Esslinger, will play host to the Long Beach Bearcats on Friday night at Hawk Stadium.

Hancock hopes to rebound after last year's 4-7 season.

For some reason; the Bearcats always come to play when they tangle with the Hawks.

The Rockachaws of St. Stanislaus will play host to the St. John Eagles Friday night in Brother Phillip stadium in Bay St. Louis.

The Rocks will be looking to better their 5-5 record of last season. St. John will be coming to town with a new coach, so Stanislaus needs to be really prepared for Friday.

Our area high school football teams need good fan support, and I hope there will be a good turnout for the games this season.

The coaches, players and managers have been preparing for the season and sweating away in recent weeks.

It will be a good morale booster for the Hawks, Tigers, Rockachaws and Pirate players to see the stands packed with hometown supporters.

Things have really changed in this county and continue to change rapidly since 9-11.

There was a time when Americans were care-free and never had to worry about very much.

Our attitude of not worrying about very much has now dramatically changed since 9-11.

We took a lot of stuff for granted prior to 9-11, but since the destruction caused on that fateful day, things such as "Homeland Security" are a vastly important.

By the way, did you know that during World War II, we had plane watch towers in Bay St. Louis and Clermont Harbor and guards on our vehicular and train bridges?

It so happened my father and one of my uncles were involved in "Homeland Security" during the war, as they were referred guards at the L&N railroad bridge at Rigolets, LA.

Just this past week it was revealed that state and local officials are waging a "water watch" program to help stave off terrorism.

QUOTES—PAGE 5A

MS could count this time

Now with only six electoral votes—one less than four years ago—Mississippi hasn't figured in the national excitement in the run-up to the Nov. 2 presidential election.

But in the arcane system known as the electoral college for electing our presidents, Mississippi's electoral votes actually could become a player, especially if there's a deadlock, throwing it into the U.S. House to be decided.

We don't need to be reminded that in 2000

George W. Bush lost the popular vote by nearly 1 million votes to Al Gore but still won the presidency in the electoral college by 271 to 266.

Of course, Bush got the crucial edge through the intervention of the U.S. Supreme Court which awarded him Florida's 25 electoral votes after four weeks of nightmarish counting of hanging chads and dimpled ballots that put him only 537 votes ahead out of six million votes cast.

A quick civic lesson: the electoral college is a 200 year-old constitutional artifact consisting of 538 votes—one for each senator and the number of U.S. House members each state has, plus three for the District of Columbia.

With an even number of votes in the electoral college, it's possible then, that there could be a tie between Republican George Bush and Democrat John Kerry. That would mean the House would choose the president, with each state having one vote.

The 1948 Dixiecrat movement was predicated on pooling electors from the Southern states pledged to neither major party, thereby denying a majority to either of the top finishers. That also would throw the election to the House. As history tells, that didn't happen.)

The prospect of a tie electoral vote in 2004 isn't far-fetched, since it nearly happened in the 2000 presidential race. Closer to home, in Mississippi which also has an "electoral college" provision in its constitution, in 1999 there was a technical tie in electoral votes between Ronnie Musgrove and Mike Parker.

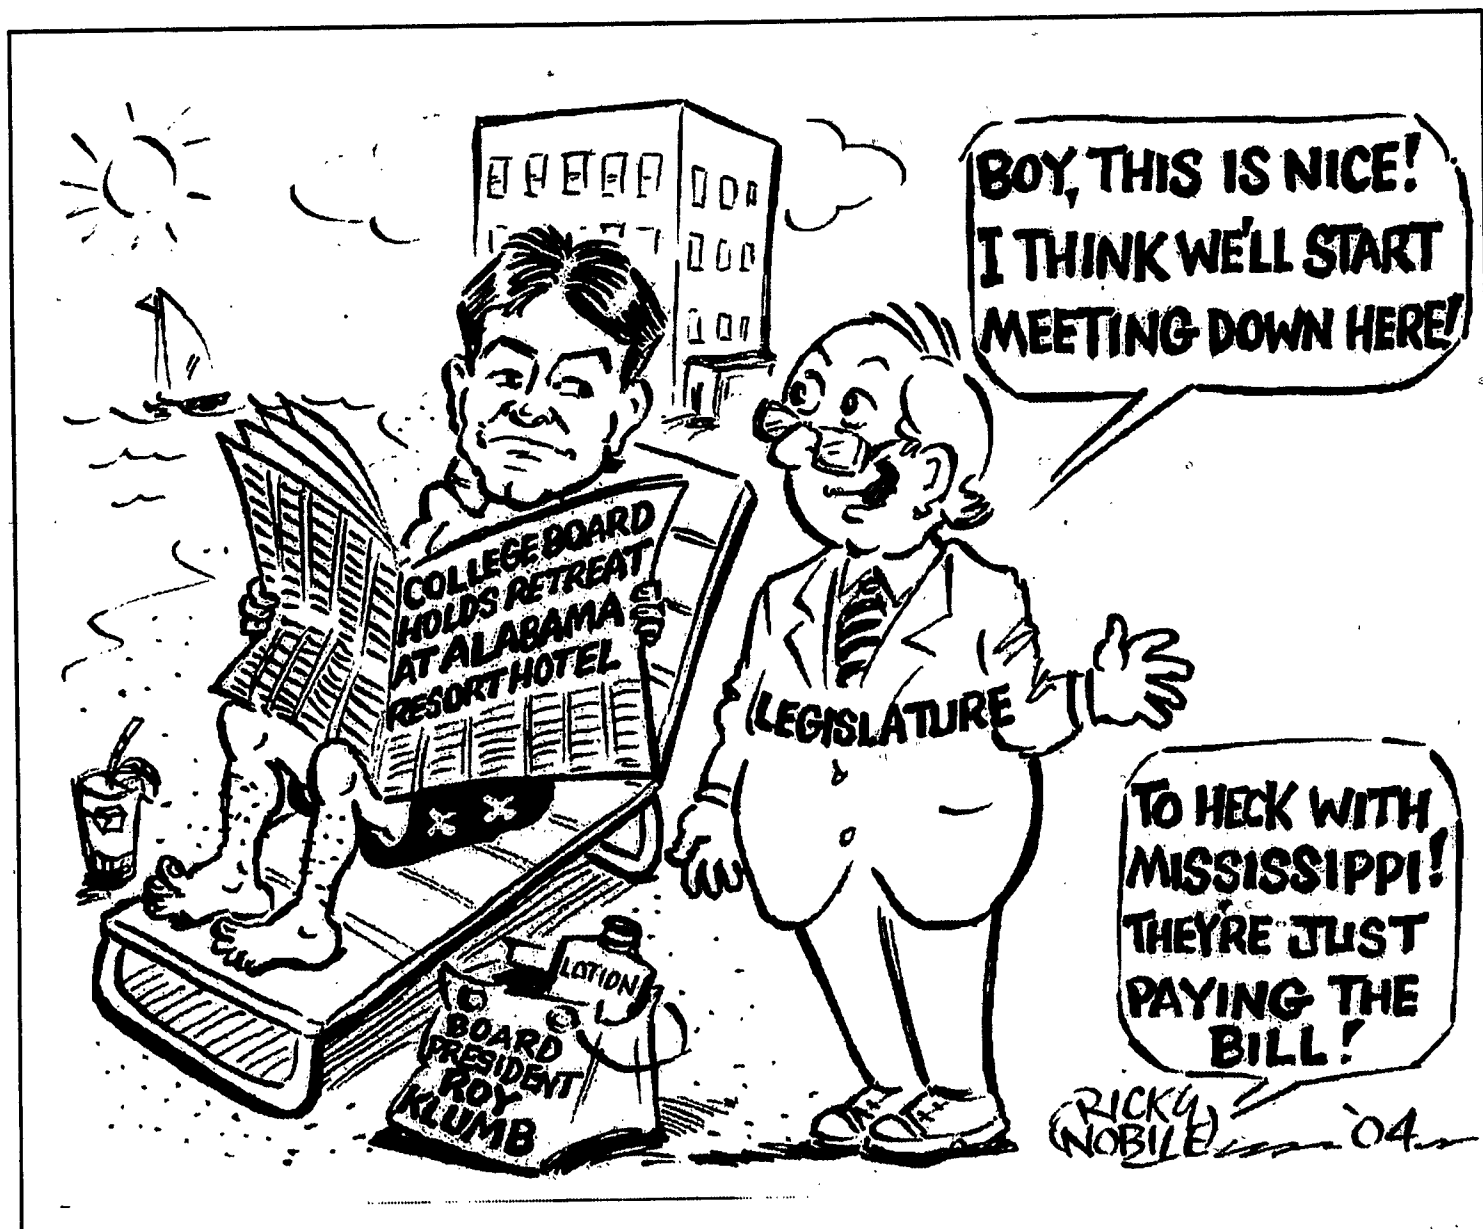

However, the Mississippi House, with nearly two-thirds of its members elected as Democrats, quickly disposed of the issue by "electing" Democrat Musgrove.

The whole national electoral college picture can get stickier. It's mathematically possible that even if the election of the president is

Barbour declares Sept. 18 state Coastal Cleanup Day

Volunteers in Hancock, Harrison and Jackson counties are needed for the 16th annual Mississippi Coastal Cleanup to be held from 8 a.m. - 11 a.m., Saturday, Sept. 18, in conjunction with the International Coastal Cleanup—the planet's largest volunteer cleanup effort on behalf of the marine environment. Governor Haley Barbour recently signed a proclamation in support of the annual event.

"I am very proud to proclaim September 18th Mississippi Coastal Cleanup Day," said Governor Barbour. "Protecting our coastal waters from debris is vital to Mississippi's environment and tourism economy."

The Mississippi Coastal Cleanup is a Take Pride in America event. Part of the President's USA Freedom Corps call to service, the Take Pride in America program is a national partnership established by the U.S. Department of the Interior and is an excellent opportunity for citizens and communities to demonstrate local pride, initiative and stewardship.

Registration deadline for the Mississippi Coastal Cleanup is September 1. To obtain a registration form and sign up to volunteer call

875-9057 ext. 114 for the Barrier Islands (requires boat); and 475-7047 for the Grand Bay National Estuarine Research Reserve (advance sign up required to reserve canoe.)

On cleanup day, zone captains will be stationed at each site in bright yellow T-shirts to direct volunteers and give them trash bags, data cards and pencils provided by The Ocean Conservancy, safety gloves donated by Garden Park Medical Center in Gulfport, bottled water compliments of the Mississippi Soft Drink Association, and a free drawstring backpack provided by Chevron Pascagoula Refinery (while supplies last). Additional cleanup supplies courtesy of Home Depot in Biloxi. Following the cleanup, volunteers must present their meal ticket for a free lunch of hamburgers, chicken sandwiches, potato chips and Coca-Cola products at Outback Steakhouse in Gulfport between 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. only the day of the event. Last year, Outback Steakhouse served a free lunch to more than 1,500 volunteers!

In 2003, the International Coastal Cleanup involved more than 450,000 volunteers from more than 90 countries who collected 7.55 million pounds of marine debris. In Mississippi, 4,590 volunteers collected more than 73,000 pounds of trash. For more information call the Mississippi Coastal Cleanup Info Line at 1-877-

Martin recognized by charities

Donnie Martin Sr., Diamondhead Supermarket manager for thirteen years, was recognized by Goodwill and the Diamondhead Make A Difference Day Committee for the participation of his store in the 2003 Make a Difference collection.

Each year, on the last Saturday of October, Diamondhead Supermarket joins a number of area businesses to aid three local charitable service organizations. Beneficiaries are: Hancock County Food Pantry, which offers emergency food assistance to those in need; Hope Haven, which provides a homelike shelter for children across south Mississippi who have been victims of abuse and neglect; and Goodwill of South Mississippi, which counsels, trains and employs people with challenges to employment.

A graduate of Long Beach High, Martin was born and grew up in Long Beach but has resided with his wife of 28 years in Diamondhead for the last ten years. The couple has three children and three grandchildren. Martin is no stranger to the world of marketing having spent seventeen years with National Supermarkets prior to joining Diamondhead Supermarket as manager thirteen years ago.

The Diamondhead Make a Difference Committee, under the able leadership of Diamondhead Whitney's Cindy Knoblock, is preparing for the upcoming fifth annual collection in the Diamondhead Shopping Center on Saturday, October 30 from 9:00am till 3:00pm.

As usual nonperishable foods will be sought for the Hancock County Food Pantry. Paper products (paper towels, paper plates and bowls, paper napkins, paper and Styrofoam cups, toilet paper and any other paper products) will be collected for Hope Haven. Clothing, household items, shoes, kitchen ware and the like will be taken for Goodwill.

Participating with Knoblock and Martin are other Diamondhead leaders: Basil Kennedy, The Peoples Bank; Trina Cuccia, Hibernia Mortgage; Sherrel Johnson, Hancock Bank; Lydia Jelinski, Girl Scouts and Mike Monju, Boy Scouts.

Asper, Sahuque to serve on CMR

Gov. Haley Barbour recently appointed two new members and reappointed one to the Commission on Marine Resources (CMR).

Oliver Sahuque of Hancock County will continue as Commissioner, Commercial Fisherman; Richard Gollott of Harrison County replaces Rudy A. Lesso, as Commissioner, Commercial Seafood Processor; and Shelby Drummond of Jackson County replaces Rickey J. Hemba, as Commissioner, Recreational Fisherman. Terms will run from July 1, 2004 to July 1, 2008.

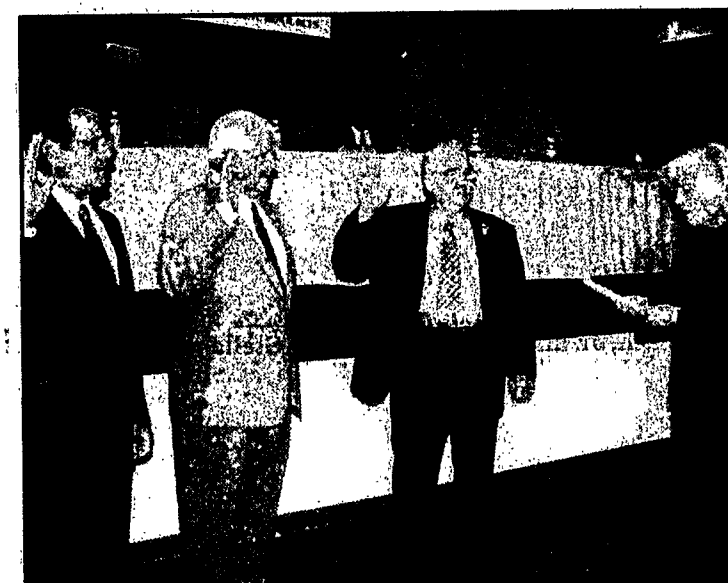

The CMR selected Dr. Vernon Asper of Hancock County, representing Nonprofit Environmental Organization, as chairman, and Mikel Gusa of Harrison County, representing Charter Boat Operator, as vice-chairman.

The commission is composed of five members representing the following areas: nonprofit environmental organization, charter boat operator, recreational fisherman, commercial fisherman and commercial seafood processor. Commissioners are appointed by the governor to serve four-year terms.

The Mississippi Department of Marine Resources is dedicated to enhancing, protecting and conserving marine interests of the State by managing all marine life, public trust wetlands, adjacent uplands and waterfront areas to provide for the optimal commercial, recreational, educational and economic uses of these resources consistent with environmental concerns and social changes. Visit the DMR online at www.dmr.state.ms.us.

Pass Library gives children 'hands-on' experience

The Pass Christian Public Library presented its 2004 Summer Reading Program. This year's theme was "Step To The Beat-Read!" The Library sponsored special programs throughout the month of June. On Wednesday, June 23, the library invited children of all ages to participate in "Hand Live" T-shirt painting. Children were asked to bring a plain white t-shirt and to use their hands to paint sea life (sea-weed, octopus, jelly fish, and fish) on their shirt. More than 60 children and 23 adults joined in the fun. After the shirts dried, children enjoyed their wearable art.

Thomas -- Waveland

Thomas won with a wide margin, claiming 311 votes to Lagasse's 155.

An "elated" Thomas said after the votes were tallied Tuesday that he was thankful to God for giving him the opportunity to give back to a community that had given so much to him.

"While I was campaigning I was asked by a constituent what I had given to Waveland," said Thomas. "After spending some time telling him who I was and what I stood for I realized I still hadn't answered his question ... I realized it was not a matter of what I done for Waveland, but what the community has done for me. Now I have the opportunity to give back and to serve the people of Waveland."

Lagasse, though disappointed, said he thought it had been a good race with all the candidates doing a good job of getting people out to vote. Last week's initial vote drew almost 500 people and Tuesday's runoff drew nearly as many with 467 ballots and nine affidavits. One of the ballots was spoiled and 4 more were no votes. Of the nine affidavit votes, four were certified.

The position became available with the resignation of Keith Mitchell in May. Mitchell said job responsibilities made it impossible for him to fulfill his duties to the city.

Thomas has said that he will work to initiate a system of accountability and communication between city departments and city residents.

He also said he will work to make sure that growth is managed wisely to preserve the peace and tranquility in neighborhoods and green spaces in areas of commercial growth.

Thomas is a long time resident of Ward 1 and is married to the former Loretta Kay Bourgeois. The couple has three grown daughters.

Thomas is employed as a controls technician at Wellman, Inc.

in this year's women's keelboat event (Ynglings), along with Carol Cronin, of Jamestown, RI, and Nancy Haberland of Annapolis, MD, came in 10th place overall out of 16. In their final two races, Filter and her crew came in first and last place, respectively, with an on-course side decision.

The gold medal for this year's women's keelboat races went to Great Britain, with The Ukraine winning the silver, and Denmark the bronze.

The final races in the 2004 games mark the end of a two-year long campaign for Filter. She said that during these two years, she put her job and life on hold in order to mount a successful run at the Olympics.

Now that it's all over, Filter said, she plans to spend time with her husband and two children, and to visit some of the Greek Islands.

"We didn't want families until the last day," Filter said. "Now, we'll be able to spend a couple days just playing tourist."

Filter's husband, Henry, also an accomplished sailor, who was on the United States Pan-American team, went to the Olympic trials in 1996. Filter said that their family learned a lot from his experiences, and helped to prepare her for her own Olympic campaign.

"We learned so much in (Henry's) Olympic trials, and saw how he got through it," Filter said.

Still, the sport has been a lifelong love of Filter's, and it is shared by many of her family members and friends.

"Through sailing, anytime I went to a new town I had something new to talk about. The people I sailed with in junior sailing, are still the ones I'm sailing against now."

Auditions for 'The Exonerated'

Love to act but too busy to commit to weeks of rehearsals? Love to act but have trouble memorizing lines?

Olde Towne Players will hold auditions for "The Exonerated" at 7 p.m. Sept. 8 and 9 at the depot in Bay St. Louis.

The docudrama premiered in Hollywood in 2002 after playwrights Jessica Blank and Eric Jensen made a six-week cross-country journey interviewing 40 former death row prisoners and their families.

The play, based primarily on interviews, police reports and court transcripts, tells the true story of five people convicted of murder, sentenced to death row and later exonerated after lengthy court battles by attorneys who believed that the American justice system was flawed.

Subsequently, the play was taken to Off Broadway where many celebrity actors, including Peter Coyote and Aiden Quinn, have had guest roles.

Co-directors Becky Rotundo and Nan Ehbright need about a dozen actors for the play, scheduled for late fall production.

"The Exonerated" is a readers' theatre vehicle, which means actors read their lines -- no necessity to memorize, thus a short rehearsal schedule.

Bay -- budget plan back spending this year sufficiently to save $765,000 in the General Fund and $257,000 in the Utility Department.

But he projects there'll only be $20,000 left over at the end of 2005 -- and some on council say that's cutting things too close for comfort.

Council president Bobby Compretta said he's "not comfortable" with the small ending balance projection. Ward 1 council member Doug Seal echoed that sentiment and said he wouldn't vote for such a plan. "We need to build up our reserves," said Seal.

Favre said the city always has the option of holding off on major purchases during the year if revenues aren't up to projections. He conceded, however, there are ways to trim items out of the plan if council insists.

The cutback likely would be in capital improvement spending, Favre said the city has to replace its pumper fire truck -- although there's nothing wrong with it except age. That's a mandate from state fire rating officials, who only consider the age of a vehicle rather than its functionality, the mayor said.

The new truck is expected to cost $160,000, and would be outfitted with equipment from the old truck, Favre told council. The old pumper, meanwhile, could be turned over to the Public Works Department for use as a water truck.

Other capital outlay the mayor seeks would finance construction of two new ballfields adjacent to Bay Middle School. Favre said the facilities would allow girls' athletic programs to be concentrated in one area, and would be augmented by the school's recreation program.

The budget also provides for repairs to the roofs on the city's three main buildings: Old City Hall; City Hall Annex, and the VCJ complex. Officials also want to build a Municipal Court facility within the VCJ, next to the Police Department.

Other spending would correct problems at the Depot, which would get some help with acoustics and new paint inside and out.

Other money is set aside to pay off the remaining city lease obligation on 10 Chevrolets, many of which are in poor shape, officials say. The city would then abandon its practice of leasing sets of vehicles and, instead, buy one or two new cars per year.

The budget sets $139,000 for the lease payoff and $80,000 for new cars. Other capital items for the police Department range from new computers and radio equipment, to barricades, radar units, gas masks and bullet proof vests.

Another $77,000 is proposed for new trucks and a backhoe for the Public Works Department.

In all, Favre wants to add four new positions to the city workforce: three for Public Works and a new "inspector" to work with the Fire Department and the administration.

Favre said the inspector would conduct fire inspections on buildings throughout the city, and check to make sure that businesses have all the state and local licenses and permits required. The mayor said particular attention will be paid to whether businesses have the required "privilege license" from the city. "We know we don't have everybody signed up," he said.

The inspector also will be on the lookout to ensure that zoning laws are being complied with, and that state sales taxes are being collected.

Meanwhile, the proposed budget sets aside $125,000 for annexation attempt costs. Last year, the city spent $100,000 on the effort, which is set for trial in November. City officials hope to greatly enhance the commercial growth prospects of the city by taking in a vast area along Highway 603 to Interstate 10.

Favre's proposal shows a modest growth in casino revenues to the city, at $8,333,000. He said he's hopeful it will exceed that level. He also hopes the city's tab for wastewater treatment will be less than the $300,000 that is in the proposed budget.

Council members questioned proposed sharp increases in costs for travel by council and the mayor. This year, council spent $11,000 but had budgeted only $4,000. The mayor's costs were $2,000, compared to the $600 that was budgeted.

Next year, Favre wants to boost both of the travel budgets to $10,000 each.

Much of the extra money that was spent on travel this year, he said, was caused by frequent trips to Jackson that he and Ward 3 council member Tom Favre took to lobby the Legislature, the mayor said.

"Up until this last year, that was never done," Favre said. He added, that the money was well worth it, however, since the city snared, $650,000 in Tideland Trust Funds and worked against proposed closing of three railroad crossings in town.

Favre served as president of the Mississippi Municipal League last year, and also was active in lobbying in favor of the optional sales tax measure, which failed.

The mayor said he's convinced that the city must have a presence in Jackson while the Legislature is in session, to help safeguard the city's interests. Most of the rest of the travel money council and the mayor spent last year went to trips to MML conventions, the mayor said.

Under the category of "other" spending, council would allocate customary support money to the Chamber of Commerce, tourism, the National Guard, Red Cross, RSVP and the Health Department. There's also a $15,000 unappropriated "other" appropriation which council could dole out during the year in response to expected requests.

in the U.S. In addition, the expansion will make the Pearl River facility one of the most cost efficient PET resin plants in the U.S.

because of the capacity of its lines, its high first quality conversions and its proximity to major customers and raw material suppliers.

"This relatively low cost expansion will allow us to take advantage of the expected growth in the PET resin market and maintain our low cost position in the industry," said Tom Duff, Wellman's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.

"The PET resin market demands high quality and cost efficient production. Wellman is very proud of its quality and the capacity addition at our Pearl River facility demonstrates its commitment to providing customers with high quality products. We look forward to working with our customers and suppliers as we provide the best value to the market," said Mike Dewsbury, Wellman's Vice President.

Wellman, Inc. manufactures and markets high quality polyester products, including PermaClear and EcoClear brand PET (polyethylene terephthalate) packaging resins and Fortrel brand polyester fibers. The world's largest PET plastic recycler, Wellman utilizes a significant amount of recycled raw materials in its manufacturing operations.

Gaits to Success hires Carolyn Rhodes as full-time director

When Carolyn Rhodes spotted a poster for Gaits to Success, South Mississippi's only therapeutic horseback riding program for handicapped youngsters, she decided to volunteer to help out.

She did so, in 1997. In 1999, she became an instructor and later obtained certification from the North American Riding for the Handicapped Association, of which Gaits is a member. Today, she is the nonprofit organization's first full-time paid director.

"She knows our program inside and out, has a good rapport with the other volunteers and knows horses," said Beth Benvenutti, former part-time director. "She also has marketing and sales experience."

Rhodes, who has lived in Diamondhead for about eight years, graduated from the University of Maryland and holds a master's in business administration from George Washington University. She retired from LexisNexis, where she was an account executive, in November.

"I spent most of my time in Washington," Rhodes said. "But I started riding when I was a child on my grandfather's ranch. I rode off and on through the years, but it wasn't a concentrated effort, just for fun and pleasure."

Gaits, which operates out of a stable in Kiln, serves youngsters from both Mississippi and Louisiana. The riding program offers them an experience that is otherwise unattainable.

The physical benefits include an increase in normal muscle tone, trunk strengthening, stretching of select muscle groups, gentle mobilization of pelvis, spine and hip joints and improved fine motor skills.

Riding also increases the youngsters' self-confidence and sense of self-worth.

Some of the youngsters at Gaits suffer from handicaps they were born with. Others were injured in accidents and Rhodes has a special fondness for them, since she was injured when a car hit her while she was crossing a street in Washington.

"My first priority is the children," Rhodes said recently. "They give me their smiles -- give me goose bumps still. A little boy came today who's possibly going to be a rider. His eyes were as big as saucers. He'd never been that close to a horse before."

Blood donors needed

THE SEA COAST ECHO

Summer may be winding down but the blood donor drought is still heating up along the Coast. Although the American Red Cross tries to keep a 3-day supply of all blood types on hand for patients in our region, supplies of blood types O and B have been hovering at just a 1/2 day supply for most of the summer. After an emergency appeal for blood donors was issued in late June, blood supplies increased slightly for just a few weeks. But as the summer continued, supplies continued to decline once again. All blood types are currently needed, especially types O Positive, O Negative, B Negative and A Negative.

Hancock Medical Center employees will partner with the American Red Cross to host a community blood drive on Friday, August 27 from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. The blood drive will take place on the Red Cross bus in front of the hospital at 149 Drinkwater Blvd. in Bay St. Louis. All donors will receive a free t-shirt as a thank you for giving blood this summer.

Community blood donors and hospital employees are being encouraged to donate blood in preparation for the Labor Day weekend. Summer shortages and a long holiday weekend can take its toll on the blood supply, leaving inventories dangerously low for patients in need. For nearly 5 million people who receive blood transfusions every year, your donation can make the difference between life and death. Blood donors can give the gift of life every 56 days. Donors who gave blood on June 30 at the Radio for Red Cross blood drive at Casino Magic in Bay St. Louis will be eligible to give again as of August 25th.

For more information on giving blood, sponsoring a Red Cross blood drive or volunteer opportunities with the Red Cross, please call the American Red Cross at 896-2217.

Bro. Ito comes to St. Rose

St. Rose de Lima Church has a new arrival. Brother Ito is a seminarian assigned to assist pastor, Fr. Sebastian Myladiyil, for the next year.

Brother Ito, whose full name is Petrus Christologus Dhogo, is 26 years old and was born in Todabelu, Flores Island, Indonesia. He is the first born in his family and he has three sisters.

His father is a school-teacher and his family moved from place to place due to the transfers he received. As a child he thought he wanted to be a doctor, but when asked in the fifth grade, who he wanted to become, he announced "I want to be a missionary". Although he did not fully understand what he was saying, it had been the prayer of his mother.

He joined the Minor Seminary at the age of 12. He chose the SVD (Society of the Divine Word) since he knew some of the SVD priests and that this congregation was both religious and missionary. He entered the novitiate in Nenuk, Timor Island for two years and took his First Profession of Vows on August 15, 1999. After that he joined the SVD Major Seminary in Flores Island to study Philosophy for 3 years graduating in 2003.

He chose to go to a foreign country for his ministerial experience and was assigned to the US. He spent time in Epworth, Iowa and Washington learning the language.

Brother Ito says, "I want to dedicate myself to this community and I am ready to be trained or taught in order to be a good person especially in preparing myself to become a good Religious Missionary Priest".

The St. Rose community welcomes Brother Ito.

Port & Harbor okays $16.2M budget for '05

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

The Port and Harbor Commission approved a $16.2 million budget on Monday which will include a general operating fund of close to $1.1 million, a railroad fund of close to $3.4 million, an industrial park fund of $4.5 million, an airport fund of close to $1 million, an FAA fund of close to $6 million and a bond issue fund of $371,574. Even though the Commission is independently funded through its own revenues, the budget will still need the approval of county supervisors before it becomes final.

Future projects include, a refurbishment and extension of the taxiway at Stennis International Airport and road improvements at the Port Bienville Industrial Park. Senator Trent Lott's office announced the approval of a $1.4 million FAA grant this week for the taxiway extension project. The state and the commission would be required to provide an additional five percent match split between them. Deputy director Greg Deakle said the taxiway project would be completed as funds became available.

In other business:

Commissioners approved an easement agreement with V.T. Halter for placement of a water line.

• Accepted a grant from MDOT for $95,000 to replace a culvert running under a railroad track at the port.

• Signed an annual agreement for cross ties.

• Signed an agreement to lease a plot of land at Stennis International Airport between the old NASA hanger and the fire station to Purcell Company. The company will build their own hanger, Deakle said, which will be used for the housing of company aircraft.

• Approved and application to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers requesting a permit to fill 26 acre of land at Stennis Airport for the instrument landing system.

• Asked that a fence and gate be installed by the Pearl River Basin District between McLeod State Park property and airport property.

• Approved the payment of $19,000 to MMCC for efforts to prevent military base closures. Payment would be contingent on the agreement of a one third split in the cost between the Commission, and Hancock and Pearl River Counties.

Southern Regional eyes new plant

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

Southern Regional Wastewater Management District administrator Sheryl Colson asked board members to approve a $2,543,903.84 2004/2005 budget last week. Though changes have been made in the distribution of funds, the budget request remains the same amount, to the penny, as last year's request. The board voted unanimously to approve the request.

This year's budget contains pay raises for all employees, including a close to $3,000/yr. raise for Colson, plant manager Doyle Ladner and office manager Genitte Butsch.

Debt service payments will remain the same at $1,342,403.84 because of a payoff of 1992 and a 1993 bonds. A 2004 bond will add $325,495 to debt service payments and a projected payment for the Western plant/Pearlington treatment project comes to $138,115 for the next fiscal year.

Plant management costs rose slightly from $922,000 last year to a projected $925,000 for 2004/2005. Administration costs fell by the same amount from $279,500 last year to $276,500 for the next fiscal year.

Hancock County government will contribute $271,260 to costs. Remaining expenses will be split between Bay St. Louis, Waveland, and Hancock County Water and Sewer District according to treatment use.

Estimated treatment costs to Bay St. Louis will be $896,895, to Waveland will be $819,613 and to Hancock County Water and Sewer will be $556,135. The entities will pay costs monthly.

In other business:

Designs for the new western plant are scheduled to be completed this month, said Digital Engineer Bruce Newton in a report to the board. Depending on land acquisition for the plant, construction on the temporary, 200,000 gallon per day plant, should begin in February of 2005 and be completed in six months, he said.

The plant will service customers in the Pearlington and west county areas as collection systems come on line.

Designs for a 1.5 million gallon per day northern plant are slated to get underway this month also, with a completion date for the plant tentatively scheduled for February of 2006.

The plant will be located southwest of Kiln and serve Kiln and the surrounding areas plus many of Hancock County Water and Sewer District's customers already on line. Planners say the plant will release treated wastewater to a nearby wetlands area for overland discharge.

An outfall line which will take treated wastewater out of Edward's Bayou and move it to an overland discharge point in south central Hancock County is scheduled to be designed later this year and in place by May 2006, said Newton's report.

Designs for an expansion to the Western plant that will include a permanent facility and increase capacity to 1.5 million gallons per day are slated to begin in January 2005, with plant construction completed in July 2006.

Modifications are also in the future for the Waveland treatment plant to replace old portions of the plant for more efficiency. Designs are expected to begin in January 2009 and be complete in February 2010.

Mercury astronauts land in Hancock

BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

I wasn't sure what to expect when I was asked if I wanted to meet three of the original Mercury astronauts. I knew it would be an honor to meet Al Worden, who had been all the way to the moon on Apollo 15; Gordon Cooper who spent many days and logged many hours whirling around the earth in Faith 7 and on Gemini 5; and of course Scott Carpenter, who followed John Glen as the second American in space. (Yes, I remember watching it all on a black-and-white T.V.)

I guess I pictured three little old men in their 70s who had grown perhaps a little staid. What a surprise I got when the three arrived laughing and joking dressed in Hawaiian shirts. I knew right away we were in for a treat.

The men even brought along their own comedian, Bill Dana, who they dubbed, the "Eighth Mercury Astronaut," in honor of the comedy routine he did which featured his character Jose Jimenez, aspiring astronaut.

Stennis Space Center Director Adm. Tom Donaldson gave a fitting introduction, filling in Stennis employees who were invited to the event on a little background information on each man.

"How many people can say that they will go to work and get the chance to meet true heroes," Donaldson asked.

"We were in the program so long ago that heck, we've forgotten more than we remember," said Worden, who began the presentation. He went on to talk about what an important role that the space center had played in putting men into space and all the way to the moon.

"The engine is the most important part, the most dynamic and powerful part," said Worden.

Of course there was a certain amount of nervousness when the time came for the launch, he said, but "we knew you guys had tested and tested (the engines)."

"I feel I flew on the shoulders of the guys who came before me," said Worden, speaking of Carpenter and Cooper and the men who went before the first mission to the moon. "These men flew the Model T's of the space age, but they flew in them and they survived."

The essential details of the movie, The Right Stuff, were accurate, said Carpenter in answer to a question, but many of the other details were allowed a poetic license, he said.

All three agreed that when they heard the words, "you have a go," at the launch site that it was perhaps the most exciting moment of the mission.

"The launch is very dynamic and exciting," said Worden.

While actually flying, you don't have a lot of time to reflect on the experience, he said, and it is when you return home that you have the leisure time to think back on the whole event.

Seeing the earth and the moon at the same time without even having to turn his head was one of the more memorable experiences Worden said he had. He was able to experience this amazing sight while recovering film while outside of the Endeavour command module, which he piloted in orbit around the August 21, 1994 - The Waveland Aldermen approved to appoint Judge Lee Klein to the position of Municipal Court Judge to fill the term left vacant with the death of Judge Walter J. Phillips in July. After three attempts, the motion was finally passed for the appointment of Klein and for him to be paid a salary of $1,800 a month.

Bay St. Louis City Councilman James Thrifley wants to assemble volunteers to study potential new regulations governing the city's historic properties. During Tuesday's meeting Thrifley the idea of creating a special historic district has generated a lot of interest -- and some concern -- among local residents. In the late 1970's the city sponsored a study to identify historic buildings in Bay St. Louis. But there are no specific regulations on the books to protect those properties from demolition or to govern alteration of them.

Repeat fever abounds for Wildcat soccer

New coaching blood sets the stage for Pearl River Community College women's and men's soccer in 2004, as Patrick Hayes takes over the two programs which have seen only one mentor in their five-year existence.

Long-time head coach Dr. Adam Breerwood pulled double duty last year as PRCC's Dean of Student Affairs and head soccer coach, but gave up the reins last spring after five years on the job.

Hayes, who spent the last two seasons as an assistant coach under Barry Thrash at nearby Mississippi Gulf Coast in Perkinston, was the ideal candidate for the job.

"I left our soccer program in very good hands," said Breerwood, who guided the Wildcats to a first-ever MACJC-Region 23 championship last year, while his Lady Wildcats won their third South Division title in five years. "Coach Hayes will do a great job. He's well versed in the sport, well organized...he'll get the job done."

Mississippi Gulf Coast's men won the MACJC-Region 23 title in 2002 while Hayes was an assistant.

"I'm very optimistic about both teams," Hayes said. "We have a solid nucleus of sophomores on the women's and men's teams and our returning starters have shown great leadership skills."

"Our returning players are already schooled what it takes to win a championship," Hayes said. "They demand a lot of themselves and know how to push themselves. Right now, our biggest question mark are outside defenders and we're going to have to have somebody to step up and help in that regard."

Hayes says depth may pose an obstacle, but "overall, we've got lots of guys with power and speed that are hard workers."

"They give me 100 percent every practice and they're eager to succeed on and off the field," he continued. "We're coming together as a team with a goal to repeat as state champions."

Aaron Lyon, a sophomore who resides in McNeill but prepped at Ponchatoula High School in Ponchatoula, La., is "a boss player."

"Aaron took a break from soccer for a year, but he's exceptional and we're expecting big things from him," Hayes added. "He's a big, strong guy...a lot like Brandon Baas."

Freshman forward Ken Beningo of Oak Grove has also grabbed Hayes' attention.

"Ken's a quiet kind of guy that gets it done on the soccer field," Hayes said. "He's done whatever we've asked of him. The same goes for Jason Noffke who played with him at Oak Grove. He's going to be a strength as a defender and will compliment Baas."

Hayes cited midfielders St. John, Lovitt, and David Fletcher, also from Oak Grove; as well as freshman Jonathan Rawls of Hattiesburg High.

Another Oak Grove sophomore midfielder Bubba Dedeaux has been recovering from an injury, but "will wind up make a big contribution in the midfield or defensively," said Hayes.

Sophomore fullbacks Zack Harrison of Brookhaven and Kris Williams of East Central are expected to make a run for a starting outside defender's spot. Other freshmen newcomers that are expected to see plenty of playing time include mid-fielder-forward Andre Dufrene, who lives in Lumberton but prepped at Central LaFouche High in Louisiana; defender Shawn Goldman of Pascagoula, forward Jason Goolsby of Oak Grove, defender-midfielder Chris McGee of Stone County, forward Shawn Moran of Bay High, and midfielder Matt Westover of Biloxi High.

The Wildcats lost the services of All-MACJC performers Bryce Breland and Drew Gallant last season.

Hayes' assessments about his women's squad were similar to the men's.

"We're going to lack some depth with our women, but the nucleus is there for a successful season," he said. "They're a motivated group that's very coachable. They want to learn and welcome advice that will make them better players."

Returning sophomores include midfielders Jan Camp of Presbyterian Christian, Jana Clements of North Forrest, and Melinda Herndon of Poplarville High; goalkeeper Jena Tetzlaff of Poplarville High, forward Meaghan Knight of Poplarville High, and fullbacks Kerri Knight and Elizabeth Raigan, both of Poplarville High.

"I can't say enough about our sophomore class," Hayes said. "They've taken leadership roles and every player seems to understand their role to this team."

Tetzlaff, who was elected permanent team captain by her teammates, will also be used as a defender this season.

Freshmen all-around player Jennifer Vital and midfielder Alicia Talvera, both of Pearl River Central, also drew praise; along with Anna Larkin of Poplarville High and Tiffany Wood of Forrest County AHS.

Hayes will be assisted by former Mississippi College soccer star Chad Hampton, a Florence native.

"Chad has four years of playing experience on the senior college level and is passionate about soccer," Hayes said. "His knowledge of the game is at the top in our league. Chad's going to be a tremendous support for me."

The Wildcat squad finished its championship season with a 17-3-2 record, while the Lady Wildcats boasted a 17-5 mark. Over the past two seasons, the PRCC women boast a 30-7 mark.

PRCC has made the postseason tournament three of the five years of the soccer program's existence. This year also marked its first-ever MACJC South Division crown.

OLA defeats Bay for Kickoff Classic title

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
Staff Writer

The Gulf Coast Kickoff Classic featured an all Bay St. Louis final with the OLA Crescents and the Bay High Lady Tigers squaring off in the finals on Saturday, August 21. And, the game did not lack in intensity going three matches.

OLA head coach Mike Meyers stated, "It was a very competitive game. Bay High keeps the ball alive. You cannot make mistakes against them. I was pleased with our aggressiveness in the game. Overall, in the tournament I was very pleased with how we played. We got better each game."

In the end, the Crescents got the better of the Lady Tigers winning 26-24, 23-25 and 15-8.

In the first match, the Crescents were in control most of the game. However, Bay High rallied from a 23-16 deficit to take a 24-23 lead. OLA responded for three consecutive points to claim the match.

In the second match, Bay High was down 11-3 at one point but surged ahead and claimed a 25-23 win over the Crescents and force the rubber match.

In the third match, OLA held their lead and won 15-8 to claim the title. It was the second time in three years that the Crescents have hoisted the hardware.

The win improved OLA's record to 11-1 while the Tigers fell to 7-2.

Bay High head coach Liz Bosarge commented, "I am very proud of our girls and how they played in the tournament. The finals were very competitive and it is a good rivalry."

Victoria Romano led OLA with 17 points while Amanda Meyers and Sarah Loiacano had 15 and 13 assists, respectively. Kaylee Schmitt led the Crescents with 11 kills.

OLA defeated Gulfport in two games 25-23 and 25-17 to reach the finals while Bay High got past East Central 25-19 and 25-23.

Meyers commented on the tournament, "This was a very successful tournament. It included all the teams that play volleyball on the Coast. The level of the volleyball in the third year of this tournament is way above what it was two years ago. Each team is getting better and better. There were more three-game matches this year than before."

On Tuesday, August 24, the Hancock Hawks traveled to OLA for varsity volleyball action. The Crescents swept Hancock 25-12, 25-15 and 25-16.

OLA head coach Mike

Meyers stated, "We played very well tonight. We passed the ball well and moved on defense. We were very focused. We played a good overall match."

Lauren Renz led the Crescents with 15 points followed by Rachel Cuevas with 10. Kaylee Schmitt recorded 8 kills while Annie Giardino and Renz each had 7. Sarah Loiacano tallied 11 assists followed by Amanda Meyers and Shelly Reboul with 8 each.

Hancock head coach Denise Ladner commented, "We started to play well during the last part of the second match and the third match. We have to start out more aggressive. We can make plays but we just need to start making them earlier."

Hancock travels to Pass Christian on Thursday, August 26 while OLA hits the road to Long Beach. Bay High will host Biloxi on Thursday.

In junior varsity action on Tuesday, OLA defeated Hancock 25-16 and 25-7. Lauren Poncet led the team with 20 points, which she served consecutively in the second match to give OLA a 20-0 lead.

Megan Chevis added 8 points.

Jaimie Reisch had 4 kills and Shelly Reboul added 7 assists.

moon while David Scott and James Irwin "gathered rocks."

"They sent Jim and Dave to the surface to pick up rocks," Worden joked. "But of course I had the most important job."

Worden said the study of geology, "or whatever you would call the study of the surface of a planet that is not the earth," is a very important part of space exploration, because "you can't do much with an object unless you understand it."

I wanted to ask Cooper about his belief in extraterrestrial life and when I did, his eyes lit up.

Cooper said he believed that there are countless possibilities for life on other planets, though he doesn't think our technology is advanced enough yet to discover that life, he said.

"We may just have to wait for them to contact us," Cooper said smiling.

I didn't get the chance to ask him if he believed that they already had, but I knew that in his book, Leap of Faith, he explored the possibility based, he says, on his own experiences with sightings of what he believed to be UFOs.

"It is the genetic drive in all of us to go into space," said Worden. "Nothing more than the survival of the species. In my mind it is not enough to talk about pushing the space program in the state of the union address and then never mention it again ... we need more."

Carpenter said he was very disappointed that it had taken 30 years to get back to talking about going to the moon.

"In the '60s we saw a plan to land on Mars in 1992," he said. "We lost our resolve and need to get our resolve back."

Two men were crucial to the that inspiration, he said: John Kennedy and Werner Von Braun. Von Braun provided the technical guidance and Kennedy provided the ability to inspire the nation.

"We need another Camelot," Carpenter said.

Maybe what we need are more men like Cooper and Carpenter and Worden to remind us of the overwhelming obstacles that were overcome to put the first great men into space, and of the excitement and hope that went along with those first flights.

"You are in the presence of greatness," Donaldson told the audience. "You just know it. These guys are the real thing."

And he was right. Cooper, Carpenter, and Dana joined travelers on a cruise up the Mississippi this week as a part of a fundraising event for the Astronauts Scholarship Foundation. The Foundation has awarded nearly $2 million to 183 students since 1984. Each year they award $170,000 to 17 college students who exhibit exceptional performance in science and engineering. August 25, 1944 - Somewhere in the Pacific (delayed) -- Though wounded by four enemy machine gun bullets, Marine Private First Class Jake Morreale, Jr. of Bay St. Louis, kept going long enough to knock out a Japanese machine gun nest with a grenade during the recent struggle for the Saipan Island. Appointed acting Corporal when his unit's corporal was wounded.

Private Morreale led his men inland until they were stopped by withering fire from an enemy gun replacement. Morreale grabbed some hand grenades and crawled under the Jap fire though a sugar cane field. The enemy spotted him and began to fire.

As a machine gun bullet struck the Mississippi Marine in the neck. Another hit him in the left arm. A third in his right arm. By the time a fourth bullet tore through his right leg, Morreale was close enough to toss a grenade and blast the enemy emplacement. Jake enlisted in the Marines on Jan. 2, 1943 and went overseas on June 5, 1943. He was slightly wounded in the Tarawa Battle in November.

He is married to the former Miss Angeline Bourgeois of Bay St. Louis and they have one son.

FDA, EPA issue advisory about mercury in seafood

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) have issued an advisory concerning mercury in fish and shellfish. Entitled What You Need to Know About Mercury in Fish and Shellfish, the purpose of the advisory is to inform women who may become pregnant, pregnant women, nursing mothers, and parents of young children how to get the positive health benefits from eating fish and be confident that they have reduced their exposure to the harmful effects of mercury. The 2004 advisory now lists fish that are low in mercury to help consumers choose the most appropriate fish. The advisory also contains specific information about canned tuna since this is one of the most frequently consumed fish in the United States.

Research shows that most people's fish consumption does not cause a health concern and we emphasize that this advisory is directed to the specific subpopulation of women who may become pregnant, pregnant women, nursing mothers, and parents of young children, not to the general consumer. Research indicates that high levels of mercury in the bloodstream of unborn babies and young children may harm the developing nervous system. With this in mind, FDA and EPA designed an advisory that, if followed, should keep an individual's mercury consumption below levels that have been shown to cause harm. By following the advisory, parents can be confident of reducing their unborn or young child's exposure to the harmful effects of mercury, while at the same time maintaining a healthy diet that includes the nutritional benefits of fish and shellfish.

Fish and shellfish are an important part of a healthy diet. Fish and shellfish contain high quality protein and other essential nutrients, are low in saturated fat and contain omega-3 fatty acids. A well balanced diet that includes a variety of fish and shellfish can contribute to everyone's heart health and children's proper growth and development. Thus, women and young children in particular should include fish or shellfish in their diets due to the many nutritional benefits.

By following these three recommendations for selecting and eating fish or shellfish, women and young children will receive the benefits of eating fish and shellfish and be confident that they have reduced their exposure to the harmful effects of mercury:

1. Do not eat shark, swordfish, King Mackerel, or tilefish because they contain high levels of mercury.

2. Eat up to 12 ounces

(2 average meals) a week of a variety of fish and shellfish that are lower in mercury. Five of the most commonly eaten fish or shellfish that are low in mercury are shrimp, canned light tuna, salmon, pollock, and catfish. Another commonly eaten fish, albacore ("white") tuna has more mercury than canned light tuna. So, when choosing your two meals of fish and shellfish, you may eat up to 6 ounces (1 average meal) of albacore tuna per week.

3. Check local advisories about the safety of fish caught by family and friends in local lakes, rivers, and coastal areas. If no advice is available, eat up to 6 ounces (1 average meal) per week of fish caught from local waters, but don't consume any other fish that week.

Follow these same recommendations when feeding fish and shellfish to young children, but serve smaller portions.

The third recommendation is very important-check local advisories-to ensure that individuals vulnerable to the harmful effects of mercury know about any special conditions involving the safety of fish caught in their geographic areas. For information about the safety of locally caught fish and shellfish, visit EPA's Fish Advisory website www.epa.gov/ost/fish or contact the appropriate State or local health department. A list of State or local health department contacts is available at www.epa.gov/ost/fish.

If you have questions about mercury in fish and shellfish or the consumer advisory, please call FDA Media Relations at (301) 827-6242. For copies of the advisory and more information on handling fish and other foods safely, consumers can call, toll-free, 1-888-SAFEFOOD.

The following local students were among 846 candidates for graduation at the University of Mississippi at the conclusion of the summer 2004 semester. Of that number, 187 earned advanced degrees - including 150 master's, 29 doctoral, 3 juris doctor and 5 specialist degrees.

The following graduates include:

• Christopher Ray Flowers Bay Saint Louis, MS

• Bachelor of Arts
• Jason Collin Rasmussen Bay St. Louis, MS

• Bachelor of Arts
• Karen Courtney Rodriguez de Carriere, MS
BS in Family and Consumer Sciences

Four generations

Project PRINTS graduates

Project PRINTS, the early intervention program of the South Mississippi Regional Center, celebrated its annual graduation ceremony July 22, 2004, at the West Harrison County Community Center, honoring 83 preschool graduates from Hancock, Harrison, Jackson, George, Stone, and Pearl River counties.

Project PRINTS, an acronym for Partnerships for Responsive Intervention Newborn to School, works with children ages zero to three who are diagnosed with a developmental delay or a disability. Students graduate when they transition from the early intervention program to their local school system or Head Start Center.

Administered by the Department of Mental Health, the program provides a wide range of services to infants and children who are experiencing developmental delays and to their families. The goal is to minimize these delays and increase the potential for future development.

Services through Project PRINTS are provided by 27 staff persons including certified special education teachers, paraprofessional teaching assistants, speech pathologists, parent educators, and a social worker. Occupational and physical therapy may be provided on an as needed basis. Services through Project PRINTS are free of charge and referrals are confidential. Project PRINTS service sites are located in Biloxi, Gautier, Gulfport, Bay St. Louis, Long Beach, and Picayune. George and Stone Counties are served through a Wiggins office. The administration office of Project PRINTS at 867-1434 will provide information to parents interested in learning about the early intervention program.

Children enrolled in the program may exhibit delays in physical skills, speech and language abilities, educational developments, or a combination of these areas. Admission into the program requires a current medical examination and identification of a developmental disability. An individualized educational plan is then developed for each child based on his or her needs and the needs of the family.

Research has shown that reaching children at an early age can have positive results in the child's home and in future school settings. The Project PRINTS staff works hand-in-hand with school districts to insure all children are prepared for school and that each child is prepared to achieve his or her potential.

Girl Scout registration set

The Girls Scouts will have registration nights for girls and adults on Tuesday, August 31, 2004 from 6:00 to 8:00 P.M. at the Diamondhead Community Center and Thursday, September 2, 2004 from 6:00 to 8:00 P.M. at the Dance Company Building at 1607 Waveland Avenue, Waveland.

Age groups include: kindergarten girls- join Daisies; first- third grade girl join Brownies; fourth - sixth - join Junior Girl Scouts; older girls, come learn about the new Girl Scout program for you, Studio 2B. Adults are needed to volunteer as leaders and helpers. College age girls and young business-women are needed for Studio 2B mentors.

For more information contact the Girl Scout Office at 864-7215, or Rhonda Rhodes, Bay Waveland Service Unit Manager, (228) 324-4443.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR THE HOUSING AUTHORITY of the City of Bay St. Louis, MS, an equal opportunity public housing agency, is now accepting applications and resumes for the position of Executive Director. This is a highly responsible position that reports to a five member Board of Commissioners. The Executive Director will be responsible for the financial and operational management of this 101 unit low-income public housing agency, with an operating and capital improvement budget in excess of $500,000 annually. The ability to work effectively with the public, staff, residents, and manage federal grants is essential and required. All applicants must have basic computer knowledge and must have a public housing manager certification or must be willing to obtain the certification within a year of employment. Experience in the administration of a public housing program, community development, or other public program is desirable. Applicant should possess a degree from a four year accredited college or have a combination of education and experience to meet these requirements. A full job description is available upon request from: William J. "Bubba" Harper, (228) 396-2612 or via written request to: Future Spec, P.O. Box 7090, D'Iberville, MS, 39540-7090. Applications will be received in the form of resumes in an original and three (3) copies to be submitted along with salary requirements, three work references, and three personal references to: Bay St. Louis Housing Authority, 601 Blenville Street, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520. The deadline for submission of resumes is Thursday, September 16, 2004, at the close of business. The Housing Authority of the City of Bay St. Louis is an equal opportunity employer.

'Wit' raises awareness, funds for ovarian cancer

BY BENNIE
SHALLBETTER
Staff Writer

Ovarian cancer is not a possibility anyone likes to think about. But the truth is that one in every 55 women will be diagnosed with the disease, about 23,000 women each year, most in already advanced stages. An estimated 14,000 of those diagnosed this year will die.

That's why producer Cecilia Abadie Howe and Blue Jay Way Productions director Jay Coker have joined with Amy Chaiklin-Murrah, president of the non-profit organization Research for Ovarian Cancer and Continued Survival (ROCCS) to present Margaret Edson's Wit, a play about a literature professor who is dying of ovarian cancer.

Five dollars of each ticket sold will be donated to ROCCS. Accurate Testing Services in Bay St. Louis will also offer discounted screening for the disease with your ticket stub.

Caiklin-Murrah was diagnosed with stage three ovarian cancer in January of 1998, at the age of 29. By then she had complained of symptoms for 13 years, she said, and had been denied surgery three years earlier. She was incorrectly diagnosed for a hernia and for endometriosis. By the time her doctor called for a biopsy, the disease was advanced.

Two weeks after her diagnosis she underwent major surgery to remove the cancer. Because of her young age Caiklin-Murrah did not undergo the usual treatment for ovarian cancer, a complete hysterectomy. A round of chemotherapy left her body completely hairless, she said.

Since then she has undergone two more surgeries, the first just 20 days prior to the five-year mark that would have officially marked her as a cancer survivor.

Since then she has made the decision to go ahead with the complete hysterectomy. At 35, her diagnosis is not the best because of the repeated recurrences, but, she says, she just takes one day at a time.

Caiklin-Murrah founded ROCCS in her native Connecticut in June of 1999. When she moved to Mississippi she registered the organization here in June of 2001. Its mission is to provide education, spread public awareness, offer support to women diagnosed with the disease, and increase the number of women diagnosed at an early stage.

There is currently no acceptable screening for ovarian cancer. Early detection can increase chances of survival to 90 percent. The most reliable test available now for the disease is a blood test called the CA 125, a test similar to the PSA prostate screen given to men, which is usually covered as a part of a yearly exam by insurance. Because awareness of the CA 125 test is low, many women don't know to ask for it, and many health insurance policies don't cover it, Caiklin-

Murrah said. Because the symptoms can mimic many common ailments, with gas, bloating, frequent urination, leg cramps, migraines and many other common symptoms, the disease remains a silent killer.

Though the CA 125 is the only test available, it is not totally reliable, she said, and can give false negatives as well as false positives. Many changes in a woman's body, ranging from hormonal changes to a viral infection can affect the results of the test, she said. ROCCS supports research to find a more reliable test and will donate $25,000 to the Gynecological Research Foundation in Chicago to further this and other research.

Wit takes the audience through the final stages of professor Vivian Bearing's life as she is transformed from a disciplined, in control, member of academia, into a subject of research herself, at a teaching hospital. The multi-dimensional play touches on many of the questions we all face in our struggle through life, and death.

Wit will be performed on August 27, 28 and 29 at the John F. Holmes Playhouse at 301 Boardman Ave. Tickets are $15 and available at the door or by calling 228-586-5574. Because of the sensitive subject matter, the producers recommend that only adults attend.

Doc Gibbs percussion workshop at the Lynn Meadows Discovery Center

Doc Gibbs, musical director for Emeril Live!, will conduct his percussion workshop on Friday, August 27 at 4:30 at the Lynn Meadows Discovery Center in Gulfport. The workshop is free and is open to adults and students.

Gibbs is one of the most sought after percussionists in the music industry today. He has toured or recorded with artists such as Erykah Badu, Al Jarreau, Whitney Houston and Ricki Lee Jones. While on tour with the late Grover Washington, Jr., Grover introduced him as "Doc Gibbs," an apt name for a musician who "operates" jazzy and funky rhythms with a vast assortment of traditional instruments. In 1997, Doc became the musical director for "Emeril Live" on the Food Network, and was given the opportunity to bring his band, Picante, to the world's attention as Doc Gibbs and the Emeril Live Band.

Doc is an outspoken advocate for music education, and conducts percussion workshops for children across the country. The workshop is educational, informative and involves participants in an exciting journey of the drum using instruments from Africa, Brazil and the Caribbean.

Doc Gibbs and Picante will perform at "BAM on the Beach II" with Emeril Lagasse on Saturday, August 28, at the Grand Casino Event Center. Tickets are $125 per person, general admission. The event is for adults only. For information call 897-6039.
